Suppah' Ministry brings God's love home

Parishioners know that St. Matt's cooks are rightly called chefs. You've eaten their homemade specialties at First Sunday lunches and special events.

Did you know that a small group, St. Matt's Suppah' Ministry, use their cooking gifts to bring meals to the homes of parishioners recovering from surgery, various ailments, or family emergencies?

So far, there are 11 St. Matt's chefs who are willing, as the need becomes known, to bring a homemade meal.

If you are interested in making a "suppah," please contact Deb Wagner, dwagner@gwi.net or 353-7251.

If you need meals, please contact Father Beau.

Food & board games (almost) ring in 2011

On New Year's Eve, 25 people gathered for a St. Matt's. The evening began with Compline (a Service found on page 127 in the Book of Common Prayer) followed by a delicious pot-luck supper, fellowship and games.

There were no night-owls among us - all headed home before 10 pm!

First Sunday Lunch gives a flavorful meaning to a soup and a salad

Ten homemade soups were featured at January's First Sunday Lunch. If you want to help with First Sunday Lunch, please contact Sherrie Dentico at 353-7024.
