Ten new Christians were baptized at the 10 am Sunday, Jan. 9 Service that commemorated the Baptism of Our Lord. The baptismal candidates ranged from infants to teens to a grandmother.

The congregation sang with gusto, responded heartily to help these new Christians in their walk with Christ, some wept with joy, and by the end of the service many were dancing in the aisle.

Praisin' the Lord as we get ready for a delicious luncheon to celebrate our new brothers and sisters in Christ!
