

The E-Matt

A weekly glimpse of God's People, God's Work
at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Lisbon Maine

www.stmatthewslisbon.org

207-353-8453

The Rev. W. Beau Wagner, Rector

Week of June 28, 2009

From left: Kassie Levesque, Katie West, and Molly Lane wearing their 30-Hour Famine painted shirts, jump for joy after 30 hours of fasting.

"It was an enlightening experience to see how hard it is to work when you are hungry," said Kassie Levesque, age 17. The 30 Hour Famine participants volunteered Saturday afternoon at the Good Shepherd Food-Bank in Lewiston.

St. Matt's Youth complete 30 Hour Famine

Eleven members of St. Matt's youth group and three adult leaders starved for 30 hours on June 25-26 to raise money to feed the world's poor.

Youth Minister Kelly Bisson, Casey

Kelly Bisson.

Levesque, and Andrew Levesque used St. Matthew's space to teach a powerful lesson on the Christian response to hunger.

The 30 Hour Famine is an international youth movement to fight hunger (www.30hourfamine.org).

Bryce King (left) and Kyle Frazier.

The worship space becomes a setting for "Tribal Games."

Sabrina Adcock (left) and Julia Martin perform a skit at the midnight candlelit service in the Chapel.

Is that Father Beau checking out a Guitar Hero session?