The Rev. W. Beau Wagner, Rector

Week of March 7, 2010

Shepherd, soldier, sinner, statesman, singer, and sage becomes a man after God's own heart

Every Sunday from 9 am until 9:50 am, David and Allison VanderLinden lead a Bible Study on the life of King David in the parish library.

Everyone is welcome in the class and will receive a syllabus and other handouts when necessary.

The group is now immersed in David's kingship and they are reading a chapter a week in 2 Samuel.

David was a man after God's own heart, and through the study of his life we have learned a lot of great lessons that we can apply in our own lives.

They invite the Holy Spirit to facilitate the class as all members seek to participate.

Everyone is welcome to join in whenever their schedule allows. No prior Bible knowledge is necessary.

Weekly Women's Bible Study turns to Philippians

Women at St. Matt's and the community are invited to the weekly Women's Bible Study on Wednesdays at noon in the Fellowship Room.

Bring a sandwich and join the group!

Father Beau leads the study. The group is beginning the Letter of Paul to the Philippians. Father Beau chose this because one of its main themes is the transformative power of suffering for the Good News of Christ.
